MESSAGE FROM THE PUBLISHER

A LIVABLE AND LOVABLE CITY

I am delighted to say that things are looking up at Filinvest City. The early part of the year was quite momentous, and I wish to personally share some of these affairs with you. First is the groundbreaking of Filinvest City's very own Marian Chapel at the River Park, Festival Alabang. This milestone project is very special to us, as this was built in honor of our late Chairman Emeritus, Mr. Andrew Gotianun Sr. Second is the rise of Botanika Nature Residences Tower 1. We are proud to be the flagship city of this unique residential concept by Filigree, the newest premier real estate brand in the country, that is a low density, ultra-luxurious condominium built around the concept of living with nature. Third, but definitely not the least, are the series of successful and well-attended events that add color and camaraderie to this township like Wanderland Festival and the 7-Eleven Run.

Filinvest's township portfolio is quickly expanding with our objective of building more urban communities that are fully integrated, future-ready and self-contained. Our work is never done as we continue to enhance and innovate. This summer, we encourage you to explore Filinvest City by foot. We believe that nature is a vital part of any space. As builders we take pride in finding the balance between softscape and hardscape. Current testament to this commitment is the Spectrum Linear Park—a lovely one-kilometer stretch of landscaped island with lush flora, seating areas, and art structures—and the augmentation of bike lanes that will help lessen carbon footprint. This is just the start and we hope that everyone will join us in our journey to becoming a total green and garden CBD.

I look forward to sharing with everyone more good news in our next issue. In the meantime, please enjoy our summer editorial lineup, which includes stories on how to enjoy Filinvest City's great outdoors amongst others. Thank you and happy reading!

FAST ON THE RISE

FROM STARTING WITH ONE BUILDING TO NOW HAVING 17 IN THE SOUTHERN CBD, CYBERZONE PROPERTIES INC. CONTINUES TO EXPAND AND ONLY SEES GREATER GROWTH IN FILINVEST CITY.

Having had the foresight a decade early to invest in dynamic Metro South, Cyberzone Properties Inc. (CPI) is now reaping the fruits of its good business, recently completing its 17th building, with four more in the pipeline as part of its aggressive projection for 2018.

CPI is a proud Philippine real estate developer, which is responsible for the first PEZA-approved I.T. park development in Filinvest City. Today, it manages several prime office spaces and BPO buildings in Northgate, including the Vector Three Building, which boasts of being the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Gold Building of Northgate Cyberzone.

“There’s no better time than now to invest in Filinvest City. For us, the number one reason that made it easy for us to decide to establish base here years ago was the fact that Filinvest City is the gateway to Calabarzon,” shares Maricel Brion-Lirio, senior vice president of Cyberzone Properties Inc. Thanks to its proximity to SLEX, the Skyway, Alabang Zapote Road, and the newly opened CAVITEX, Filinvest City becomes the ideal location for multinational corporations seeking to establish headquarters in the south as well as business leaders, entrepreneurs, and employees.

Brion-Lirio shares that their decision to expand in Metro South was founded on thorough study and planning. Through the company’s initial surveys, which aimed to gauge the demand for leasing properties, CPI found that many employees and executives from Batangas and Laguna were seeking to work in a CBD, and preferred Filinvest City as it offered not only accessibility, but a balanced live-work-play lifestyle. “Unlike other business districts, where it’s so congested, here, people can go biking after work, walk around the malls, and explore the city. You can definitely achieve a healthy lifestyle and balance here,” she adds.

As a real estate developer, CPI does more than simply build high-rises for lease. It, as a company, anticipates what its locators need and want, and Filinvest City presents these very locators a unique opportunity and competitive advantage. Filinvest City is a master-planned development that is tied together by a vision of progress. All aspects of what makes a city great—business, employment, retail, entertainment, and community, etc.—are fully realized in this modern community. One of the most palpable sustainable initiative done was the completion of the District Cooling System (DCS), now known to be the largest in the country. DCS is a centralized production and distribution of chilled water. This chilled water is distributed via an underground distribution network in a closed piping circuit. One of the key benefits of using DCS is improved electrical efficiency.

On the business front, the thriving CBD continually grows exponentially every year, with local and foreign investors establishing operations in the thriving Northgate Cyberzone. In retail, Festival Alabang has become a landmark, offering a newer, more diverse mix with the completion of its expansion. For families and urban professionals, the Metro South becomes an ideal home and haven with its green initiatives and dedicated spaces for gardens, parks, and nature trails.

“Our locators seek variety. Aside from proximity to residential neighborhoods and condos, they’re looking for the complete lifestyle, which Filinvest City delivers through its diverse offerings and amenities. The South is a very livable community with fresh air and a fun, laid-back vibe that all want to be part of,” says Brion-Lirio. In addition, as part of its long-term goal to become the “Great Garden City of the South,” Filinvest City is investing in the development of more eco-friendly, LEED buildings, which CPI is excited to be part of.

For businesses, both small and large-scale, Filinvest City has proven to be a great economic partner, and Brion-Lirio believes this, too. “We are very happy with our growth in Filinvest City, and have completed numerous projects. And we look forward to more milestones in the future,” she ends.

FILINVEST CITY SET TO HOLD FIRST-EVER COMMUNITY FAIR FESTIVAL OF POSSIBILITIES

FILINVEST CITY, THE PREMIER GARDEN CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT IN METRO SOUTH, PRESENTS TO ITS COMMUNITY AND GUESTS YET ANOTHER REASON TO COME TOGETHER. ENJOY THE CITY'S HEALTHY OUTDOORS, AND MAKE NEW FRIENDS AS IT HOSTS ITS FIRST-EVER FESTIVAL OF POSSIBILITIES AT THE FILINVEST CITY EVENTS GROUNDS ON JUNE 8 FROM 3 P.M. ONWARDS.

The Festival of Possibilities is a festivity aimed at bringing the community closer. Through this exciting estate-wide fair, city dwellers will surely get to explore the possibilities of play and music with activities consisting of inflatables, games, a bazaar, and an awesome concert featuring some of the country's best-loved bands like Parokya ni Edgar, Franco, Autotelic, and Ben & Ben.

"We are happy to host the first Festival of Possibilities as it showcases Filinvest City's lush greeneries and open spaces," says Filinvest Alabang, Inc.'s vice president for Township Don Ubaldo. "We also believe that with Festival of Possibilities, we further cement our stature as a community that brings together family and friends through fun, engaging events."

So, don't miss out on all the fun! Simply present proof of residence or employment in Filinvest City to get a pass to the event. Non-residents and non-employees, meanwhile, may buy tickets priced at P500 at the venue gates or may present receipts (minimum of P200 per receipt) equivalent to P1,000 from any of the merchants in Festival Alabang, Westgate Center, and Fastbytes Northgate Cyberzone to get one (1) ticket.

Without a doubt, the Festival of Possibilities promises to be a delightful experience to its community and guests as they bask in Filinvest City's verdant surroundings and fresh air.

GOING GREEN

FILINVEST CITY, AS A MASTER-PLANNED MODERN COMMUNITY, BELIEVES IN EMBRACING THE GREAT OUTDOORS AND WORKING WITH NATURE, RATHER THAN AGAINST IT.

Explore the Garden City of the South using its bike lanes

Since it was first conceptualized, Filinvest City was envisioned to become the model of a modern city, primed for progress and fitted with all the features to make it a world-class CBD. While it was built to compete against other major business districts in the Metro, Filinvest City positioned itself differently—a cut above the rest—by focusing on becoming a greener, cleaner community, one which would not compromise the health and beauty of its natural surroundings.

Here we look at the different green initiatives that the rising CBD has undertaken to ensure a more promising, thriving, balanced lifestyle for its community.

Feel the warm summer breeze at Spectrum Linear Park

RIDE AROUND THE CITY

Filinvest City is divided into different economic zones, and these are all interconnected by a convenient network of e-jeepneys. Professionals and residents can take these and safely reach their destination. These e-jeepneys contribute to the greater green scheme of the CBD as they're powered by electricity, thereby reducing carbon footprint and pollution.

FUTURE-READY

Filinvest City's vision of building a sustainable and future-ready city was further cemented with several initiatives. One of the most remarkable initiative is the District Cooling System (DCS) in Northgate Cyberzone, now known to be the largest in the Philippines. With DCS, electricity consumption for air-conditioning requirements in Northgate Cyberzone will be reduced as it serves up to 20 office buildings.

WALK THIS WAY

While other CBDs feel congested, Filinvest City planned ahead to prioritize open spaces and gardens, allowing the city and its people to breathe. Supporting the community of active individuals, the Metro South has allotted bike lanes and wide pedestrian pathways so that residents and guests will be encouraged to walk and explore the city by foot.

PALM PERFECTION

Helping the runners, walkers, and aspiring athletes of Metro South, the city has planted numerous trees across the CBD to offer a soothing shade from the heat and sun. To date, the city has planted an estimated 3,000 Date Palms that not only help cool the city, but which does wonders to beautify the landscape.

SEEDS OF HOPE

As the Garden City of the South, Filinvest City ensures that it fills its open spaces with gardens and parks that the community can enjoy. With its own nursery, the city has placed under its care hundreds—if not thousands—of seedlings, which will one day be replanted in pocket gardens and parks throughout the CBD.

STRETCH OF GREEN

Spectrum Linear Park is a one-kilometer innovative “greenbelt” that connects the northern and southern zones of the CBD. Here, professionals, families and barkadas can find a quiet corner to sit, read, relax or play. Joggers, runners and walkers also make use of this scenic stretch for their morning and evening routines.

GLOBAL RECOGNITION

Filinvest City recently applied to be registered with the US Green Building Council’s Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) for Neighborhood (NDv3) planning—making it the first development in the Philippines to seek certification. The US-based council, a nonprofit organization, recognizes impressive design and developments that are environmentally responsible, from construction to maintenance. Today, only two other countries in the world hold that prestigious recognition—Italy and Japan. Hopefully soon, through Filinvest City, the Philippines will earn its mark.

State of the ART

DEFINING LUXURY AS A CONCEPT OF LIFESTYLE, BOTANIKA IS MORE THAN WHAT PEOPLE SEE. SINGAPORE-BASED ISABELLE MIAJA POINTED OUT THAT IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT THE MATERIALS BUT HOW PEOPLE FEEL WHEN INSIDE.

Now ready for occupancy, Botanika Nature Residences, a master-planned upscale condominium complex by Filigree, is for the rarified few. It harmoniously co-exists with its environs, providing residents a home where they can enjoy luxurious, close-to-nature living, similar to that of an oasis at the heart of a bustling metropolis.

Seamlessly integrating outdoor and indoor spaces, the interiors of Botanika are just as luxe and opulent as the open amenity areas. Residents' own spaces are no less lavish with roomy, larger-than-usual condominium units cut into two-bedroom suites, three-bedroom flats, three-bedroom garden bi-level units, five-bedroom garden bi-level units, and grand penthouse units ranging from 123 to 343 square meters.

Add to the generous living spaces are the indoor amenity areas such as the main lobby, business center, kids indoor play area and the mock-up unit, interior-designed by award-winning Isabelle Miaja of Miaja Design Group. Of Spanish and French descent and based in Singapore, the US-trained Miaja draws from her DNA, which fuses a number of cultures. The taste-fully designed tower 1 common areas, which serve as the extension of the residents' private suites, are furnished and fitted, draped and adorned with stunning pieces.

Says Miaja, "When we design, we build every project around a story line that is connected to the place, the people, and its art, the whole cultural background." She thus roamed around and shopped for antiques in Manila, Pampanga and other cities, taking in as much as she could. "I have to reinvent everything and give it a new twist," she adds.

The main lobby breathes a profound fusion of local and modern, of Filipino folk elements and the contemporary, as envisioned by Miaja. An organic theme strikes in when one comes in the lobby—a compelling vertical wall with flora-inspired covering and orchid metal sculptures accentuated by warm lights, a striking carpet covering a portion of the lounge area that provides a vibrant touch in contrast to the ivory floor, a minimalist furniture played up with bright cushion, warm and modern pendant lights, a green wall and a landscaped wall art—all these make up for a welcome fit for a five-star hotel.

Just a few steps and then it opens up into the lush atrium pleasing the eyes with the view of the iconic building structure with open space at its core—well-lit by natural lighting coming from the glass sunroof by day and warm hallways radiant with bollard lights accentuating the lush landscaping and the water feature at night. Residents also have a bird's eye view of the atrium as they go up the scenic elevators designed with timber paneled interiors continuing the organic theme, where they can appreciate an architecture so aesthetically thought-out—a pleasant ride to their cozy unit.

Coming up to the mock-up unit, also interior designed by Miaja, will always be a lovely progression of experiences.

Nature is simple as it is complex. Botanika Nature Residences also similarly share a contradiction. According to Miaja, “With Botanika there is also a city feel in another sense because (the structure) is sharp and crisp. But, organic and beautiful classic lines are also combined here.”

The fusion of the natural and the contemporary is also reflected in other common indoor areas. The kids play room has colorful storage solutions for toys, vibrant area rugs and hip furnishings stitching up a modern indoor recreational concept for play and study areas. Meanwhile, the business center with a meeting room furnished with modern furniture selection is a place for grown-up assemblies or just when residents want to catch up with some literary classics.

“You have to take your time to appreciate what we have done for Botanika. Each piece pops out. These pieces do not necessarily come to you at once, but you love them when you come in, and you start to appreciate everything,” she shares.

Other shared outdoor amenities include the outdoor play area with treehouse, the al fresco atrium deck and of course the tiered infinity kiddie and lap pools—the jewel within Botanika—surrounded by lush landscaping complete with sundeck, changing rooms and veranda. With all these princely amenities, Botanika offers its residents the opportunity to enjoy a relaxing environment in their own vertical home affording them a vacation, a staycation or a day in the park in their own residential development.

All this luxury and more await you at Botanika, now ready to welcome residents to its first tower—completed on time and at best quality—with its ready for occupancy status.

BEAN & YOLK: BREAKFAST HUB

Starting off as a small, 15-chair breakfast haunt in Makati, Bean & Yolk has made its way to Filinvest City, waking up the neighborhood with its exciting brunch menu.

“Bean & Yolk was inspired by our travels, as I previously worked as a flight attendant in PAL (Philippine Airlines). When I was stationed abroad, I would hang out at the coffee shops in Australia, LA, and London, and noticed how baristas were like chefs,” shares Patricia Jorolan, the brains and palate behind Bean & Yolk.

Today, Patricia and her husband Chukoy have teamed up and brought life to their simple food concept, focusing on perfecting coffee and eggs. “Just freshly baked bread and fresh ingredients,” nods Patricia.

Chicken Curry Salad, Cereal
Waffles, and Tapa Bowl

For first timers, Cara’s Fave is a must-try, the duo agree. The warm, gooey delight is their version of the grilled cheese sandwich, which uses two kinds of cheeses and hot honey. This is laid on a warm, freshly baked brioche bun that lends that wonderful crunch and full bite. For something that delivers more complexity of flavors, the Chorizo Mama energizes the taste buds. It’s a pseudo burger made with homemade chorizo—without preservatives—that’s slathered on with hot and sweet homemade BBQ sauce.

A light meal great for easing into your day is the Chicken Curry salad, that is as light and as bright as the Metro South sunrise. “Here, you can have breakfast anytime of the day. Come here for breakfast and stay as long as you want. We have sockets at all tables so you can work and more tables so you and your friends catch up or work without being disturbed,” smiles Chukoy.

And to power you through beyond breakfast, Bean & Yolk has its selection of coffee-based and milk-based treats. And these are no ordinary beverages as they’re prepared with roasted beans, sourced only for that day, and fresh, organic milk and almond milk.

Come in hungry and leave energized, fully ready to take on the day ahead! Bean & Yolk is open from 8 A.M. to 10 P.M.

Bring in the SUNSHINE

"I loved the relaxing, laid-back lifestyle of my previous home, which is exactly what you'll find here in the South, too."

It's a bright, sunny day at Spectrum Linear Park in Filinvest City, with beautiful greens softening the landscape that's framed by silver high-rises and dominant buildings. And the only thing brighter than the skies is Judy Ann Santos-Agoncillo's bubbly disposition.

The Vibe's cover girl steps onto the shoot ready and energized. "This is my first time here, di ko alam na may ganito pala!" she says with glee, walking down the one-kilometer stretch of gardens that defines the innovative greenbelt. "I'll definitely bring the kids here next time."

STAYING STAR POWER

Judy, as she's more fondly called, despite over three decades in the business, still charms with unbeatable star power. Her recent flick, "Ang Dalawang Mrs. Reyes" with Angelica Panganiban earned a hefty P120 million at the box office early this year, and she's set to headline another teleserye on ABS-CBN.

Though she's thankful to her fans and audiences who still tune in to watch her on the small and big screens, Judy Ann reveals that she has simpler wants in life today.

"Sa totoo lang, I feel that I am not that famous anymore, though I'm grateful for the opportunity to continue acting. Sa ngayon, I'm not the first priority when it comes to movies or teleseryes anymore, which is fine with me," she says with a smile, revealing that this, at first was a bitter pill to swallow. But she has since come to terms with her current slide from popularity.

"But I've come to that point in my life that I've accepted it...It's the circle of life, and accepting change is the key to being happy. Don't resist the change or improvement."

Buoyed by a more empowered perspective, Judy Ann is embracing the new chapter in her life and career, seeking to savor the moments with her brood and exploring new, exciting projects.

SEIZING SUMMER

This summer, Judy Ann shares, the Agoncillo family is keeping it low-key and simple with their plans. "We just told the kids that maybe we will go around the Philippines. Sabi ko nga sa kanila that there are also nice beaches here and places to explore, and not necessarily kailangan namin lumabas ng bansa," she explains.

“There’s so much open space, gardens and parks here, which is great for the kids. On our part, we especially like the bike trail and the carless Sundays. The community (in the South) is small, but it’s complete,”

Judy Ann admits that her kids—Yohan (13), Lucho (7), and Luna (2)—are quite easy to entertain, which is why they’re happy just as well to spend their summer break at home in the blossoming Metro South.

“We don’t mind staying at home; we love it nga. Watching movies and playing—that’s our favorite pastimes. And si Ryan naman, you cannot remove him from the South. He grew up here. This is his base.”

THE CALL OF THE SOUTH

When they first got married over a decade ago, Judy Ann admits that making the big move to Alabang wasn’t a major leap for her as she’s an Antipolo girl who loves the great outdoors. “I grew up in the north, surrounded by greens; I only moved to Manila because of work. Whenever I would get stressed, I would always find myself longing for the quiet of nature.

“I loved the relaxing, laid-back lifestyle of my previous home, which is exactly what you’ll find here in the South, too,” adds the Southern belle who has been living in the area for almost a decade.

HOME HITS

According to Judy Ann, if the family isn’t at home watching movies or having an impromptu picnic in their backyard, you’d most likely find them at Commercenter, their favorite neighborhood haunt. “We love the cinema, it has a nice mix of restaurants, it’s not too big, and I do a little bit of my pampering there as well at the Aivee Clinic,” she beams. The couple also loves to eat, but they also take great time and effort to keep in shape. They often head to a fitness center located in Westgate Center for their gym dates.

But more than the modern conveniences and the diverse mix of lifestyle malls accessible to their home, what really drew Judy Ann and Ryan to take root in Alabang is the laid-back vibe and feel of the place. The southern part of the Metro becomes not only the perfect place for busy urbanites and professionals to relax, but also the ideal home and haven to raise a family.

"I remember our own childhood when we were happy just playing patintero, running around. Now you see kids always on their gadgets. So, I do appreciate that here, there's something more interesting that they can do than just be glued to their screens," says Judy Ann.

"There's so much open space, gardens and parks here, which is great for the kids. On our part, we especially like the bike trail and the carless Sundays. The community (in the South) is small, but it's complete," nods Judy Ann. From schools to malls, supermarkets, hotels and cinemas, everything is within convenient reach.

A NEW PASSION

Free from the stress and the confining feel of other typical cities, Judy Ann shares that the southern community has inspired her to explore her other passions such as cooking, which she does on her new YouTube channel, Judy Ann's Kitchen.

"I thought about starting Judy Ann's Kitchen for a long time. I love watching cooking shows and the Food Network, but it always felt stiff. The chefs are very technical and precise, so I wanted to show that you can cook and make mistakes and that's totally fine," she says beaming.

A true Filipino cook who doesn't hold back on flavor, Judy Ann gets creative in the kitchen and shares her delicious learnings with her fans. "I just love combining flavors together and creating a new taste. I want to bring that energy, curiosity and passion to Judy Ann's Kitchen because the show is more about inspiring people and not being judged. If you love to eat, you can cook. If you love to cook, you can eat," she says.

To date, her channel has over 150,000 subscribers and continues to grow every day. "I'm so excited and happy na maraming sumusubaybay," she shares with glee. She has many more plans for her fledgling digital show, but she doesn't want to preempt anything. Hopefully, she says, Judy Ann's Kitchen will tour public schools around the metro to teach children about health and nutrition, and to come up with her own line of aprons. "Marami pang plans, but for now I don't want to put a lot of pressure and preempt myself. I just want to enjoy it," she beams.

With her star continuing to shine and her spirit fully invigorated by new exciting endeavors, Judy Ann only sees brighter days ahead. "What I've learned is that life is too short to be unhappy. Embrace the change; don't resist."

"At the end of the day, you are the only one who can make yourself happy because you alone know what your heart needs to be full," she ends.

It's the only area with free space where we can exercise and enjoy the nice sights. We also like that it is full of trees. We come here not only during Shared Zone Day but also during holidays.

—”—

— Anthony and Catherine Felipe

We have been going to this area way before Shared Zone started. This is where we assemble and train and take our snacks after. We like that there is no noise and the ambiance is great for exercising.

— Team Generika (Bong Libres, Antonio J. Ana, Chester Gans, Abe Dayuta, and Josh Celis)

Shared Zone makes it possible to enjoy the outdoors as a family. It is safe for our kids to bike here. We have also joined several Shimano and Endurance Races here in Filinvest City so we are very fond of this area.

— Cabatit Family (Anthony and Alona with their daughters Frances, Clare, and Toni, and Lola Leonila)

I used to walk inside our village, but then there are more cars now, and it became dusty. When I saw the people here who seemed to be enjoying, I tried it out for myself. I have been exercising here for two months now. I find it safe, quiet, and relaxing.

—Glecyn Millanes

—Warren and Nemia Martin
with their dog Yassi

We go here during the weekends to bring our dog out and to exercise. We normally have our bikes for a ride on the bike trail. What we really like here are the trees. Nature is alive here.

We come here to enjoy the bike trail which we find is just the right balance, not too hard and not too easy. The whole outdoor space is not only great for exercising but even for al fresco dates. This is a well-centered zone and a more down to earth version compared to other CBDs.

We like the area and the breeze here. Plus, it is so near our homes. We come here at least twice a week to ride our scooters. We would usually start riding in the RITM area and go downwards.
